

Building a pro-education Democratic majority in the State Assembly

Thursday, September 18th – 5:30 PM – Ground Zero Coffee House

Join with the Democratic Party of the 2nd Congressional District to help build support for electing a pro-education majority in the Assembly!

Hear from our special guests about winning a pro-education, Democratic majority in 2008 and what we can do to make it happen!

Sondy Pope-Roberts – 79th Assembly District Representative
Mark Pocan – 78th Assembly District Representative
Cory Mason – 62nd Assembly District Representative
John Matthews - Executive Director, Madison Teachers, Inc.
Carol Carstensen – Former Madison School Board Member
Arlene Silveira, Beth Moss, Maya Cole, Marj Passman –
Madison School Board Members

Join with our Hosts and Education Activists for a reception to support the work to build a pro-education majority in the State Assembly:

T.J. Mertz, Robert Godfrey, Matt Calvert, Russell Wallace, Anita Krasno, Peter Rickman, Lindsey Lee

We will have complementary food and beverage for all. Come have a great time with fellow supporters of public education!

With just three Assembly seats needed for a pro-education Democratic majority, we can win that majority right here in our backyard of South Central Wisconsin. This event will help the Democratic Party of the 2nd Congressional District build the resources we need to help make it happen!

Suggested Contribution $25

All generous contributions gratefully accepted!

For more information or to RSVP, please contact Peter Rickman, Chair of the Democratic Party of the 2nd Congressional District at rickman.peter@gmail.com.

September 18th, 5:30 PM – Ground Zero – 744 Williamson St, Madison, WI 53703

